

In Search of the North Pole

Our culture is on a quest to find the meaning of life. Seekers on a quest to find "It". It's our culture's unknowing quest for God. Guess what! Believers have what our world is seeking! In recent years, even the church has recognized this "quest" our culture is on and has tried to become "Seeker-Sensitive"!

In chapter 16, Jesus asked Peter "The question"...
"Who do you say that I am?"

Answer that question and the quest will take on a whole new direction and meaning!

Here are a few truths found in our text today. (Matt. 16-20)

- 1. Our Spiritual Life _____ with _____.
- 2. We Do Not Walk the Journey _____.
- 3. Jesus is always at the _____ of our Spiritual Life.

People are attracted to "The Spiritual". Fresh expeditions for the spiritual set out almost daily across this country and around the world. We know the answer... and we know the Way. His name is Jesus, and He has commissioned the church to share it with the world.

What I Will Do With This Message: _____
