Chapter 3

---

This morning, we conclude our study of the book of Habakkuk. The beginning of this book and the ending are very, very different. J. Vernon McGee says... Habakkuk “begins with a question mark and closes with an exclamation point.”

In chapter 1, Habakkuk is saying, “God, I don’t understand.” In chapter 2, God said, “Be patient and wait.” And even though things around him didn’t seem to be getting any better, Habakkuk is at peace in chapter 3. And I want you to take note of this, nothing changed on the outside, but Habakkuk changed on the inside.

In chapter 1, Habakkuk is upset and confused. As we move on to chapter 3, Habakkuk is at peace. This morning, I want to look at three things Habakkuk did that we need to do to make the transition in our lives from confusion, worry and fear... to faith, confidence and joy.

1. We need to _____ what God has done. (1-15)
2. _____ what God is doing.
(16: and 2 Corinthians 12:9-10)
3. _____ what God is going to do in the future. (16-18)

Let’s be honest, we have ALL walked with God through enough yesterdays that we can trust Him with all our tomorrows.

Corrie Ten Boom said it so beautifully...

Never be afraid to trust an unknown future to a known God.

Our TAKE AWAY:

It’s time to rededicate ourselves to be about our Father’s business.
